Loganville Man Arrested for Carrying a Gun while Intoxicated

(REEDSBURG, WI) Reedsburg Police were called to the Laundromat in the 100 block of 2nd Street, early Wednesday morning for a man who was unconscious.

Officers were dispatched to the Second Street Laundry at 12:10am, on Wednesday. On arrival officers identified William J. Laffey (39) of Loganville, who was in the Laundromat, passed out. Laffey was intoxicated and in possession of a 9mm handgun. Laffey was taken into custody without incident and charged with Going Armed while Intoxicated, Carrying a Concealed Weapon, and Open Intoxicants in Public. Laffey was transported to the Sauk County Jail.

The Sauk County District Attorney's Office is reviewing the charges.
